Spring 2010 Concerts

Mar 5 7:30pm Taize & Lent Antipasto

Free. Deacon Bill Austin and Patti & Steve Anderson lead their usual beautiful first-Friday Taize prayer service, followed by a special stark Lent edition of Antipasto with two haunting keyboard works.

Mar 10 7:30pm A Box of Chocolates

$5 non-Youth Ministry members/free 4YM. Support our parish Youth Ministry at a talent show & open mic! The young people are right here, OLG; where are you?

Mar 20 8pm Babylon Chorale

"Celebrates the Classics" $15 reg/12 students & seniors. The Babylon Chorale returns for the spring to bless our parish once again, this time with Mozart's Requiem and shorter works by Mozart, Haydn, and Mendelssohn. You've heard the talk; now find out what you've been missing.

Mar 28 6:30pm Joint St. Aidan's-OLG Choirs

Free. OLG Adult Choir takes on a brand-new venture as it collaborates for the first time with the Adult Choir and select Youth Chorale of St. Aidan's (Williston Park, Nassau County) in this performance of Theodore Dubois' The Seven Last Words of Christ. As a choral setting of texts taken from the Passion narrative, this prayerful and affecting piece will start your Holy Week off right.

Apr 4 10am Guest Artist, clarinetist David Frye

Free. Between Masses on Easter Sunday, virtuoso David Frye performs Mozart's Clarinet Concerto—and, if Terence can locate a piano & clarinet arr, Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue—a triumphal soundtrack for the resurrection of our Lord. David is playing at the other Easter Masses too; by 2:00, his lips will be ready to fall off and then he's back to Boston so let's graciously welcome him during his brief and busy visit.

Apr 16 7:30pm OLG Choirs Spring Concert

Free. The OLG Youth, Children's, and Adult Choirs perform their fourth annual spring concert. This is always a fun event, packed with short traditional and contemporary pieces and singalongs. Bring your a.d.d. friends! Let your children see performances by their contemporaries!

Apr 24 1:30 Easter Antipasto

$10. Terence performs his original screamo work possibly with the help of one or two surprise guests, plus two large works for piano—Beethoven's Waldstein Sonata and Schumann's Fantasiestücke—all in keeping with the joy of this liturgical season.

May 8 3:00 Guest Artist, trumpeter Rodger Lee

$10. Locally renowned Rodger Lee of Royal Brass returns to OLG with his bag of trumpets and his characteristically endearing and informative talks.

June 13 7:30pm LIVE (Long Island Vocal Ensemble)

Free-will offering. Former members of the Stony Brook Camerata Singers perform complex choral repertoire under the directorship of Anne Kollar, who also directs the Babylon Chorale.
