For Your Reflection

Statement on the Inauguration of Joseph Biden from Archbishop José Gomez, President of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops.

My prayers are with our President and his family. I pray that God grant him wisdom and courage to lead and help heal the wounds caused by this pandemic, and political and cultural divisions, and bring people together as one nation under God committed to liberty and equality for all. Catholic bishops are not partisan players. We are responsible for the souls of millions and advocates for the needs of all. Catholic parishes, schools, hospitals, and ministries form an essential culture of compassion serving women, children, the elderly, poor and sick, the imprisoned, the migrant, no matter what race or religion. When we speak on issues in public life, we try to guide consciences and offer principles rooted in the Gospel and the Church's social teachings. Jesus revealed God's plan about the human person, created in God's image and endowed with dignity, rights and responsibilities. The bishops and Catholic faithful carry out Christ's commandment to love God and neighbor by working to protect human dignity, expand equality and opportunities for all, and be towards the suffering and weak.

For many years, the USCCB has helped Catholics and others on political issues and concerns, among them: abortion, euthanasia, death penalty, immigration, racism, poverty, environment, criminal justice reform, and international peace. Our duty to love and our moral principles lead us to judgments and positions that do not align with political categories or the platforms of political parties. On some issues we're more on the side of Democrats, on others with Republicans. We are Catholics first, seeking to follow Christ faithfully and advance his vision for humanity. With President Biden and the Congress there will be areas where we agree and work closely and areas where we disagree and have strong opposition.

Working with President Biden will be unique, as he is our first president in 60 years to profess the Catholic faith. In a time of growing and aggressive secularism, when believers face challenges, it will be refreshing to engage with a President who understands the importance of faith and institutions. At the same time, bishops are given the duty to proclaim the Gospel in all its truth and power, even when that teaching is inconvenient or the truths run contrary to society and culture. So, I must point out our new President has pledged to pursue policies to advance moral evils and threaten human life and dignity, most seriously in abortion, contraception, marriage, and gender. Of deep concern is the liberty of the Church and freedom of believers to live according to their consciences.

The continued injustice of abortion remains the “preeminent priority.” We have deep concerns about threats to human life and dignity. As Pope Francis teaches, we cannot stay silent when nearly a million unborn lives are being cast aside each year through abortion which is a direct attack on life that wounds the woman and undermines the family. It is not only a private matter, it raises troubling and fundamental questions of fraternity, solidarity, and inclusion. We cannot ignore abortion rates are much higher among the poor and minorities, and the procedure is regularly used to eliminate children with disabilities.

Rather than expand abortion and contraception, as he has promised, I hope the President and his administration will work with the Church. My hope is to begin dialogue to address the cultural and economic factors that drive abortion and discourage families. My hope is to work together for a family policy that acknowledges the crucial importance of strong marriages and parenting and the stability of communities. If the President, with respect for the Church's religious freedom, engages in this conversation, it would help restore civil balance and heal our country's needs.

The President's call for national healing and unity is welcome. It is urgently needed. As believers, healing is a gift only from God. We know that real reconciliation requires patient listening to those who disagree and with willingness to forgive. Christian love calls us to love our enemies, bless those who oppose us, and treat others with compassion. We are under the watchful eye of God, who knows and can judge our hearts. I pray that God will give our new President, and all of us, the grace to seek the common good with all sincerity. I entrust our hopes and anxieties to the heart of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the mother of Christ and the patroness of this nation. May she guide us in the ways of peace and obtain for us wisdom and the grace of a true patriotism and love of country.

Respect Life: America's Test of Greatness

“America you are beautiful... and blessed.... The ultimate test of your greatness is the way you treat every human being, but especially the weakest and most defenseless. If you want equal justice for all and true freedom and lasting peace, then America, defend life.”

Parish Social Ministry

Fratelli Tutti – On Fraternity and Social Friendship – Part 15

At a time when various forms of fundamentalist intolerance are damaging relationships between individuals, groups and peoples, let us be committed to living and teaching the value of respect for others, a love capable of welcoming differences, and the priority of the dignity of every human being over his or her ideas, opinions, practices and even sins. Even as forms of fanaticism, closed-mindedness and social and cultural fragmentation proliferate in present-day society, a good politician will take the first step and insist that different voices be heard. Disagreements may well give rise to conflicts, but uniformity proves stifling and leads to cultural decay. May we not be content with being enclosed in one fragment of reality.

Thank you, thank you

New York Repeals Prostitution Loitering Law

On Feb. 2, 2021, Bill S.1351-Hoylman/A.3355-Paulin passed both houses of the Legislature and was signed by Gov. Cuomo. It repeals Penal Law § 247, which bans loitering in public for the purpose of (a) engaging in prostitution; (b) patronizing a person for prostitution; or (c) promoting prostitution. This law does not mean prostitution is legal in NY, but it deprives police of a statute to help them be proactive in combatting street prostitution. We should be concerned that repealing the loitering for prostitution will be used as a step toward the full legalization of prostitution. In fact, a full legalization of prostitution bill, S.3075-Salazar/A.849-Gottfried, has been introduced and a partial legalization bill is in the works.

"WE SHARE" is a Win-Win.

Please prayerfully consider "WE SHARE" for your contributions.
WE SHARE helps us budget and gives you piece of mind that your contributions to OLOG are automatic each month.

According to Reuters News Agency:

The majority of Americans (53% and growing) pay bills electronically and have moved away from cash or writing checks. This has accelerated with online shopping. Due to the pandemic, people are also avoiding handling money and paper. Other reasons: electronic bill payments are faster, more convenient with debits directly from their bank accounts, offer more protection against theft, fraud, counterfeiting, are more environmentally friendly, and offer peace of mind. WE SHARE distributes acknowledgement cards for those who attend Mass yet feel awkward letting the collection basket pass without putting something in it.

WE SHARE has been servicing Catholic dioceses and other faiths since the 1990s. Apart from the weekly collection, online donations can also be done for special appeals, such as for disasters. During this pandemic and also with inclement weather, many churchgoers stay at home and our parish suffers financial loss. Nationwide, parishioners miss an average of 10 services a year at their home parish.

Not only do direct debit and credit card payments mean more consistent giving, collections increase an average of 10-30%. Please remember: Your donation is not a business transaction, but a personal gesture of stewardship towards your faith community.
